

Our 20th Season!

Intimate and informal chamber music concerts for music lovers!

www.galleryplayers.ca

To our amazement and delight The Gallery Players of Niagara turns 20 this season! Looking back at 19 seasons of fantastic concerts, featuring hundreds of incredible works and scores of performers, one can see how far we've come. Without you, our devoted and engaged audience, none of this would have been possible. Some of you have even been with us from day one! Looking ahead there will be more amazing pieces to introduce you to, as well as many worthy of being heard again! Our celebrations this season include two slightly bigger projects. The first is an opera production with our friends at Capella Intima; the second is a recording of three works written especially for The Gallery Players, all transcriptions of the well-known and loved works of Beethoven, Schumann and Ravel. To commemorate the beginning of our 20th season, we welcome back our first music director, Heather Dawn Taves, who will join the Niagara Winds for a wonderful concert of piano and woodwind quintet music. Join us for another 20 years of spectacular music-making in Niagara!
