CONCERT #7

Opera in Concert “Folly in Love”

by Alessandro Scarlatti, Bud Roach director

Mistaken identity, sibling rivalry, and love at first sight – these comic themes drive the eighteen-year-old Alessandro Scarlatti’s first opera, premiered in Rome, 1679. Despite papal decree against such scandals as women on stage, and a ban on the church’s employment of theatre musicians, the public couldn’t resist the charms of this new, youthful voice of opera.

“Gli equivoci nel sembiante”, an intimate comedy for four singers and orchestra, became a hit that toured throughout the regions of Italy for decades.

Capella Intima and members of Nota Bene Baroque Players come together to perform this wonderful work.

PERFORMERS

Julie Baumgartel and

Rona Goldensher violins
