Our 21st Season!

Intimate and informal chamber music concerts for music lovers!

Our 20th anniversary season was an incredible success and has inspired us for the decades to come! A heartfelt thanks to those of you who completed our most recent audience survey; you have reinforced our commitment to offering a wide variety of intimate chamber music. We're very excited to be presenting one of our concerts this season in the new Cairns Recital Hall of the FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre in downtown St. Catharines. As part of our new vision for up-coming seasons we have developed a new logo and will be launching a new website which will go live in October, 2015. The new website promises to make Gallery Players events, CDs, and tickets more readily available to a wider audience.

Our success would not be possible without you, our devoted audience. Please join us for the next exciting season, and for years to come!

Margaret Gay
Artistic Director

4 Movie Night CO-PRODUCTION with NAC

We continue our fascinating journey with improvised music accompanying silent films. In The Kid (1921), Charlie Chaplin's little tramp takes in a street orphan who mimics every physical gesture of his would-be father; in Sherlock Jr. (1924), Buster Keaton, silent film's comic genius, portrays a loner who woos the woman of his dreams but envisions the traps of family life.

5 Tunes and Tangos: Festive Chôros Music of Brazil

Join us for a soul-warming afternoon of traditional Brazilian instrumental music, full of beautiful melodies and mesmerizing rhythms. The infectious dance rhythms and scintillating colours are brought to life by flute, clarinet, guitar and percussion, the ensemble originally heard in the cafes of Rio de Janeiro in the early nineteen hundreds. It's Carnival!

6 The Beethoven Cycle Continues

We continue our cycle of Beethoven piano trios with the enduring masterpiece the "Archduke" trio Op. 97. Its pair for the afternoon, piano quartet Op. 1 #1, was the first published work of the 13 year old prodigy Mendelssohn.
