Parisian Crossroads

As Europe's second largest city at the end of the 18th century, Paris was a vibrant intersection of political, cultural and musical ideas. Wolfgang Mozart, Joseph Bologne (aka Chevalier de Saint-Georges) and Hyacinthe Jadin all spent time or lived in the French capital between 1776 and 1800. The Eybler Quartet explores the musical interconnections of these three fascinating composers, offering one of Mozart's least-often performed quartets, a newly rediscovered work by Bologne and an extremely rare opportunity to hear the glorious and dramatic music of Jadin.

PERFORMERS: Eybler Quartet:

Margaret Gay, 'cello; Patricia Ahern, violin;
Patrick Jordan, viola; Julia Wedman, violin.

Odin Quartet & Michele Jacot

Brahms' Clarinet Quintet

Discover why Brahms' Clarinet Quintet remains a favourite among musicians and audiences alike; a moving blend of melody, colour, and emotion will draw you in with its soulful and mesmerizing dialogue between clarinet and strings.

PERFORMERS: Michele Jacot, clarinet.

Odin Quartet: Tanya Charles, violin; Matthew Antal, viola; Samuel Bisson, 'cello; Alex Toskov, violin.

Agape: Unconditional Love

Jazz standards often focus on love's feelings - sometimes playfully, as in The Best Thing For You: "I only want what's the best thing for you, and the best thing for you would be me." But the highest form of love goes beyond feelings; it's selfless and sacrificial - what the Ancient Greeks called agape. We've found this love is also key to making meaningful music with others. Join us for a journey through some of our favourite chamber music and jazz standards!

PERFORMERS:

Jenny Armor, violin & voice; David Liam Roberts, 'cello.
